Combo Bet Scale

Our work in designing a logical and simple betting scale for the Combo Strategy is complete.

We have spent a lot of time going through all the possibilities and profitability's of hundreds of possible permutations that this multi-plan concept has thrown at us.

There is a big discrepancy between a one-plan qualifier like La Mexicana on Saturday listed as $70 and a $490 four-plan qualifier (like Felecia). The performance does not necessarily reflect these wildly different total bet amounts.

Knowing that a level stakes bet on all qualifiers gives the same percentage profit as betting on the sum of the qualifier's bets from all plans, it is obvious that we can't be investing seven times as much on a Felecia as a La Mexicana.

We have decided on a simple four tier scale (2.5%, 2.0%, 1.5%, 1.0%) calculated as per this table:

Combo Combined Bet Total	Number of Plans Qualified for	Bet % of Bank	$10k Bank	Example Sat 17th April
$200 +	4	2.50%	$250	Felecia $490
$200 +	3	2.00%	$200	Sword Of Mercy $390
$200 +	2	2.00%	$200	No examples
$200 +	1	2.00%	$200	No examples
$150 - $199	2	1.50%	$150	Thousand Wishes $190
$150 - $199	1	1.50%	$150	Fanciful Toff $150
Less Than $150	1	1.00%	$100	La Mexicana $70
				Paul's Regret $100
				Lord Von Costa $100
				Good and Proper $100

Example (Refer to actual listings from last Saturday below):

Thousand Wishes qualified for two of the four possible strategies, Elite-Filter $130 and Grade% Plan $60.

Check that info against the table above:

"Combo Combined Bet Total " = $190

"Number Of Plans Qualified For" = 2

"Bet % of Bank" = 1.50% ($10k bank = $150)

From this Saturday we will include the recommended scale bet. The raceday list will look like this:

									Apply 5 Combo Filters (Red if Failed)
Combo Strategies Apr 17th
CAU As Listed $10k Banks									1	2	3	4	5	Combo BET

8	6	FELICIA	190	100	100	100	490	4	4.4		12	100		250
8	11	PAUL'S REGRET				100	100	1	6.0		12			100
8	4	LORD VON COSTA				100	100	1	10.0		12			100
9	14	GOOD AND PROPER		100			100	1	4.8		15	60		100
9	6	THOUSAND WISHES	130		60		190	2	9.5		15	60		150

Spreadsheet-using members will no doubt find their own improvements and some will surely come up with a more sophisticated bet-scale but the four tier scale above is perfect for raceday simplicity and bank stability during runs of outs.

When you study the lists of results, please look closely at the runs of outs of 11 losing bets in Feb, drawing down $1,700 and 9 losing bets in November costing $1,300.

Here is a meeting by meeting look at the Mel Combo plan in action.

Remember, master spreadsheet users know that the four contributing plans have been live and listed along the way – before the event. The only change after the event is the addition of the result.

In other words, these results are audited by the most important auditor of all, current Elite members.

Conclusion

We are finding it hard to keep a lid on this. We have developed a very powerful way to combine four winning strategies into one plan with one bank with a high-action, high-profit strategy that should appeal to all members.

It is out-performing the Elite-Filters and has twice the action. It will be very interesting to see the two strategies pitted against each other over coming months/years.

It has to be your call whether to stay with Elite-Filters, go with separate banks for each (no cross-referencing!) or change over to one dedicated bank for the Combo plan.
